Just print

Print, copy and scan your large format documents. Collate, staple, fold and review them on an ergonomical height. The Océ CS2436MF ReproKiosk is a complete repro system in one stylish and compact workbench.

The ideal solution

The Océ CS2436MF ReproKiosk is ideal for designers and engineers who appreciate a neat and convenient working area. Save costs by in-sourcing repro tasks. Get ample storage for office supplies and consumables. The professional way to organize document-related clutter.

Repro in-sourcing made easy

Now you can in-source expensive print, copy and scanning tasks to reduce operational costs and gain extra time to meet critical deadlines. All in one convenient standalone workbench.

The Océ CS2436MF ReproKiosk includes the fast Océ CS2436 color printer with an interpolated resolution of 2400 x 1200 dpi, the Océ CS4236 high resolution scanner with 1200 x 1200 dpi, Océ Copy Easy for making copies and room to place a computer.

Good ergonomics made easy

The large on-top table allows everyone to work on large format documents at an optimal working height in a relaxed posture. There is plenty of room to check, collate, fold and spread large format prints on an ergonomical height. If you want to make a scan or copy, simply open the scan area.

All the supplies you need are within reach. And there is much less wear and tear on your valuable documents.
